BOARDING AT ROSSALL

Whether boarding is a new concept, or something that you believe to be a key part of a great British education, Rossall guarantees that you will be blown away by the boarding facilities and the inclusivity of the school community. With a Harry Potteresque dining hall, beautiful chapel and exciting House competitions, the school has many hallmarks of a traditional boarding school yet the atmosphere is completely free of stuffiness or unnecessary pomp.

Boarding at Rossall is very much in tune with 21st-century life. There is a family atmosphere in the houses, comfortable communal areas, campus-wide Wi-Fi access, carefully appointed study bedrooms, and state-of-the-art shower rooms. Perfectly cared for by houseparents and tutors, young people find the dormitories a great place to relax, study and make friends. These friendships can last a lifetime, open up so many new opportunities and allow them to experience new and exciting cultures through the people that they are surrounded by. The diversity of the school is virtually unrivaled by any other school in the area, and arguably in the whole of England. Boarders at Rossall develop great social skills, independence and understanding, as well as a warmth of spirit and character that will serve them well throughout their lives.

SPORT AT ROSSALL

Former Head, Dr Stephen Winkley, called Rossall 'the healthiest school in Britain' and with its coastal location, fresh sea air and enthusiastic approach to sport, it is easy to see why. Sport is seen as a key part of the Rossall all-rounder - a student who is competent in all areas of the curriculum, academically sound, emotionally intelligent and physically fit. A range of sporting activities exist for the keen sportswoman or sportsman at Rossall, but even those who just want to play for fun or to keep fit will have plenty of options to choose from. Of the wide range of sports on offer, Rossall's own game - RossHockey - played on the beach in front of the school, is the most unique!
