SCHOOL PROFILE

Menaul School, founded in 1896, is a college preparatory day and boarding school in Albuquerque, New Mexico. With about 200 students at the school and a 7:1 student to teacher ratio, students receive individualized attention in class. Menaul offers Advanced Placement (AP) and dual credit courses at both high school and college levels. Students who graduate with a diploma from Menaul School are eligible for in-state tuition prices at public universities in New Mexico.

FACILITIES

Situated on 32 acres, the campus provides a quiet, college-like environment. Menaul School has 12 buildings, two gyms, along with soccer and football fields on campus.

SPORTS AND ARTS

There are 7 sports available for upper school students, where any student can join regardless of previous experience or skill level. Menaul School partners with University Degrees Abroad (UDA), offering a professional soccer academy where students participate in soccer training year-round, advancing their abilities and preparing them to play the sport at university level.

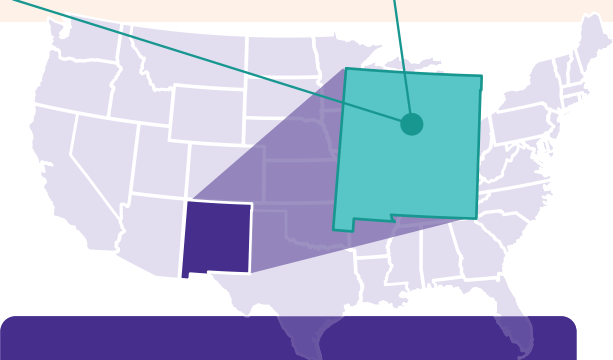

The Menaul School Fine Arts Program focuses on providing students with diverse exposure to the arts as well as to nurture authentic idea development, tenacity, creativity, and performance skills. Their instructors are professional artists, teaching anything from ceramics to string ensemble to photography.

COMMUNITY INFORMATION

At the heart of New Mexico, the vibrant city of Albuquerque offers international students countless opportunities to explore. Its diverse culture includes traditional New Mexican cuisine, world-class museums, and the world-famous Route 66. With more than 310 days of sunshine, it's possible to ski the slopes of the Sandia Mountains and play a round at one of the city's award-winning golf courses all in the same day. A must is to soar above the city in the hot air ballooning capital of the world!
