

Saint-Genès High School is a place that enables students to give the best of themselves thanks to a very good teaching.

With the assistance of teachers, Saint-Genès La Salle does everything to ensure that everyone can succeed and flourish in a trusting environment.

Apart from the school curriculum, lots of activities and charity events are offered! Solidarity projects are also put in place. A student body organizes several activities as well such as concerts, an end-of-the-year prom night etc. The school also enables its students to go on language exchanges (Barcelona in Spain, Macroom in Ireland, Riverdale in the U.S, Kocevje in Slovenia and Krakow in Poland).

Getting to know Bordeaux

Saint-Genès High School is located in Bordeaux in the Southwest of France.

Only three hours away from Paris by train, Bordeaux is a real cultural treasure with an outstanding architecture created in the age of enlightenment. 200 years ago, the city has earned the title of "Little Paris" and in 2007, Bordeaux received the World Heritage status by UNESCO.

WHY SAINT-GENÈS LA SALLE IS THE PERFECT FIT ?

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

INTERNATIONAL FRAMEWORKS

Saint-Genès welcomes many students from all over the world and puts together school exchanges with other foreign high schools, it also has partnerships with language exchange associations. The school organizes trips and field trips around a multidisciplinary project.

A COMMITTED HIGH SCHOOL

The High School created a pro-environment association to promote green actions and sustainable development. They try to get things moving and develop the commitment of the students throughout various projects.

RANGE OF ACTIVITIES

The school offers activities rarely found in French schools such as an induction day, a Christmas song show, various musical projects, green and environment projects etc.

THE STUDENT UNION

In order to take part in the well-being of the students, activities and workshops are promoted : from concerts and football sessions to photograph classes and an end-of-the-year prom night.
