The Lycée Polyvalent Philippe Duschenes is an educational institution open to all, which welcomes its students from the second to the 3rd year of license in very diversified courses.

His baccalaureate results are excellent, close to 100% since 2019. Located on the outskirts of Grenoble, the Corenc site hosts the Lycée Général et Technologique and preparatory classes.

The Philippine Duschenes Campus is accessible by public transport, with dining, friendly and work spaces, allowing each student to find a setting where they can flourish in their educational project.

To choose this institution, "is to share the values that underlie the educational project: respect, kindness, honesty, responsibility."

Getting to know Corenc

Located in the south-east of France, Corenc is a pleasant town near Grenoble. It is known for its agricultural and wine landscape and is covered with pastures and woods, close to the mountain. Philippine Duschenes High School is located close to the downtown and all amenities (signs, shops, restaurants). In the city, there is the possibility of using public transport and many bike paths. Recently, the city has committed to putting forward a new youth policy, aimed at putting young students in the spotlight.
